

Do not preempt the Wisconsin No-Call law. It reflects the will of millions of Wisconsin citizens. Wisconsin law also does not tilt the marketplace in favor of large corporations with many affiliates and unrelated products. It allows small companies the same opportunity to compete. All of the federal exemptions were considered by the Wisconsin drafters and rejected by the citizens of the state. Leave the law alone!